

Work Experience

South Carolina Hurricane Matthew Recovery Program—September 2017-Present

When massive flooding occurred along the east coast during and after Hurricane Matthew in 2016, DSW Homes starting preparing to assist local residents in their recovery efforts. The storm caused hundreds of thousands of residents to go without power and flooding that caused significant damage.

The Hurricane Matthew Recovery Program under the direction of the South Carolina Disaster Recovery Office intends to repair or replace 1,350 homes. So far, DSW Homes has provided repair services to 210 homes.

Quick Facts

Duration	Sept 2017— present
of Homes Completed	210

*The photo to the left shows flooding in Charleston, SC.

